Millbrook Horse Trials

at Coole Park Farm

To all our friends and neighbors, our competitors, our generous sponsors, our hard-working volunteers and the thousands of spectators who come to watch this thrilling sport, welcome to the 18th Millbrook Horse Trials!

The 2018 World Equestrian Games will be held this September in Tryon, North Carolina and the Millbrook Horse Trials will serve as a preparatory event for horse/rider combinations hoping to be selected for the U.S. Team. Tremaine Cooper, our FEI-level course designer, has created a new track for the Advanced competitors which should prove to be both educational and challenging. Come and share in the excitement of the cross country on Friday and Saturday!

What's New in 2018? We have a new Advanced Cross-Country course, expanded warm-up areas, and some great new vendors at the Trade Fair.

Again this year we will feature an electronic scoreboard in the show-jumping arena on both Saturday and Sunday. While each horse and rider are in the ring, spectators as well as competitors will be able to see all their details, including their placing to date. This scoreboard will also be a great place to learn more about our generous sponsors.

We certainly can't go without thanking our wonderful landowners: The Millbrook School and Coole Park Farm. The cross-country course is run on land owned by the school, and the stadium jumping takes place on Coole Park Farm property owned by David and Connie Clapp. Both properties host the dressage competition.

Last, but certainly not least, the support we receive from our volunteers, the local community, the riders themselves and our very generous sponsors, both those that return each year and those joining us for the first time, is the engine that keeps this event moving forward. We thank each and every person for their support.

Here's to another fabulous event!

Smart Investing Starts with Strong Relationships

There's only one way to know how to invest for your client, and that's to know your client. So every account at Bank of Millbrook Trust and Investment Services starts with getting to know you – your circumstances, your concerns, your hopes and your goals. All learned by sitting face-to-face with the person who both develops and manages your investment approach.

Meredith Tiedemann has created wealth strategies for her clients for years, and with her foundation as a Certified Private Wealth Advisor®, she can help you maximize growth, monetize and protect your assets, minimize taxes and, ultimately, transfer your wealth to future generations.

It starts with relationships. Like portfolios, they aren't built overnight and they're better when nurtured over the long term. That's something as Dutchess County's only locally managed Trust and Investment Services department, we are uniquely suited to do. Let's get to know each other.

A black and white portrait of Meredith Marsh Tiedemann, a woman with short, wavy hair, smiling. She is wearing a dark blazer over a white top, a dark beaded necklace, and a patterned skirt. Her arms are crossed.

Welcome to our Spectators

We hope that everyone will have a good time at the Millbrook Horse Trials. No other sport permits the spectator such an active role, but one person in the wrong place can ruin months and years of hard work for competitors, as well as place all parties in jeopardy of physical injury. To ensure your safety and that of the competitors, and to preserve the fairness of the competition, please familiarize yourself with the guidelines:

HORSES HAVE THE RIGHT OF WAY. The horses and riders will be moving at speed across country. Always look both ways before moving and stay alert for warnings from officials. Stay behind marked barriers and ropes and keep clear of the area around each cross-country fence. Please observe the advice or directions of fence judges on the cross-country course.

CHILDREN MUST BE WITH AN ADULT AT ALL TIMES. Children often do not realize the danger that horses present.

DOGS MUST BE LEASHED. Absolutely no exceptions! Loose dogs are a hazard to competing horses and will be impounded and the owners fined $50. Noisy or disruptive dogs must be removed from the grounds.

AVOID UNAUTHORIZED ASSISTANCE TO COMPETITORS. Providing assistance to a rider during competition, whether solicited or not, is forbidden, under penalty of the competitor's elimination. The only exception to the no assistance rule is in the case of a fall. Officials or spectators may catch a loose horse or aid a fallen rider to remount and adjust saddlery. No one, however, may mount the horse except the rider.

QUIET, PLEASE! Undue noises can cause distractions to horses and riders and can affect the outcome of the competition or cause an accident. Please hold your applause until after a competitor exits the dressage arena, completes a cross-country fence, or finishes the stadium course.

Please be considerate of the site and use trash receptacles. Portions of the competition adjoin private property. We hope you will respect the land and privacy of these generous neighbors.

While observing these precautions, please feel free to move about the competition area in order to see as much as possible of the varied activities. Do not hesitate to ask questions of volunteers and officials, who will be happy to assist you.

Neither the Millbrook Horse Trials Organizing Committee nor owners of property on which the Millbrook Horse Trials are held accept any responsibility for any theft, accident, injury or illness to horses, riders, employees or any person or property whatsoever.

The Three Horse Trials Disciplines

Millbrook Horse Trials is conducted under the auspices of the United States Eventing Association (USEA) and the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF). In a Horse Trials, the rider and horse, competing at the division level appropriate to their experience, must participate in three different phases: Dressage, Cross Country, and Stadium Jumping. Penalty points from each of these phases are totaled for a final standing. The lowest score wins the division.

DRESSAGE

The dressage test is a series of compulsory movements performed on the flat in an arena. The performance must be fluid, balanced, and accurate, presenting an overall picture of grace and harmony. It reflects the cavalry officer's need for an obedient, attractive mount on the parade ground. Getting a calm, submissive, and well-balanced test from an extremely fit and eager horse before its strenuous gallop cross country is a real achievement.

Each movement of the dressage test is awarded from 0-10 good marks. The good marks earned (minus any error of course or test) are converted into a percentage of the maximum marks available. This percentage is subtracted from 100 to create the penalty score for the test. The resulting total is the score in penalty points for the test.

CROSS COUNTRY

In this phase, considered the most demanding and exciting part of a Horse Trials, the horse and rider must gallop over natural terrain, negotiating at speed a variety of unfamiliar jumping obstacles. The horse does not know what is ahead, but must trust and unhesitatingly obey the rider, who has studied the course beforehand. Water, banks, ditches, drops and other features of natural terrain may be encountered, as well as man-made obstructions. Options of height and striding (distance between jumping efforts) further challenge the competitor's skill and control.

Cross Country proves the speed, endurance and jumping ability of the horse as well as the boldness and knowledge of the rider. It is the most important part of the entire competition and counts most in scoring. Time penalties are assessed, as well as penalties for refusals and falls at jumps and deviations from course.

STADIUM JUMPING

Stadium Jumping tests the horse's obedience and athleticism over a timed course of fixtures which can be easily knocked down by a careless horse. The track of the course is irregular and winding, requiring control and handiness. Penalty points are assessed for knockdowns, refusals, falls, deviations from course, or for exceeding the time allowed. The object of the Stadium Jumping test is to prove that, after jumping solid obstacles at speed in the Cross Country, horses maintain the obedience to jump a course of obstacles cleanly at a controlled pace.

At the end of the Stadium Jumping, each completing competitor's scores from Dressage, Cross Country, and Stadium are totaled. The horse and rider team with the lowest number of penalties is declared the winner. The pageantry of the final ceremonies with trophies and awards is only a small part of the competitor's experience. The true rewards lie in the competition itself. Preparing for, meeting, and mastering the widely varied demands of combined training allow riders to discover what they and their mounts can do. Those who have completed the event can rightly pride themselves on their accomplishments.

SUPER FIBER FEEDS BEET THE THIRST!

When working, horses can lose 2-3 gallons of water through sweat. Hydration is gut driven.

To prevent dehydration, we need to provide the gut with the right tools. High moisture, low binding feeds is essential to proper hydration.

Speedi-Beet and Fibre-Beet provide high levels of water, helping gut transit and allowing for hindgut absorption. This allows for correct functioning of the gut and provides a reservoir for hydrating tissues that lose water through normal activities, metabolism and exercise.

Emerald Valley Mashes are packed with the super hydration power of Speedi-Beet or Fibre-Beet, allowing them to absorb more than three to five times its size in water! Available in 8 highly palatable flavors, our mashes are great for traveling, hiding medication, or just a fun, simple meal.

Call today or visit us online for free samples!

Highly palatable, easily digestible, low in starch and sugar.

Non-GMO, no additives or preservatives!
